The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff, labeled 'El. Pno.', uses a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. It begins with a series of eighth notes in the first measure, followed by a whole note in the second measure. The middle and bottom staves, both labeled 'El. B.', use bass clefs and the same key signature. They both begin with a series of eighth notes in the first measure, followed by a whole note in the second measure. The score concludes with a double bar line.
