Example 22 is a musical score for a single melodic line. It consists of two measures. The first measure contains a series of beamed eighth notes, with some notes marked with an 'x' above them. The second measure continues this pattern with more beamed eighth notes and rests. The notation is dense and complex, typical of a technical exercise or a challenging piece of music.

The musical score for Example 26 is presented on a grand staff. The piano accompaniment is written in the lower staves, with the right hand playing a steady eighth-note pattern and the left hand playing a more complex, syncopated pattern. The vocal line is written in the upper staff, featuring a single melodic line with various intervals and rests. The score is divided into two measures by a double bar line.

The image displays a page of musical notation for guitar, consisting of ten systems of music, numbered 56 through 76. Each system is composed of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals, with some notes marked with 'x' to indicate specific techniques or positions. The music is written in a style typical of guitar sheet music, with a focus on rhythm and melody. The page is numbered '3' in the top right corner.
