The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff, labeled 'D. Kit', uses a C-clef and contains a complex rhythmic pattern of beamed eighth notes and rests. The middle staff, labeled 'Frtl. El. B.', uses a bass clef and contains a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The bottom staff, labeled 'S.', uses a treble clef and contains a single whole note in the first measure, followed by rests for the remaining measures. The system is numbered '60' at the beginning and '5' at the end.
