The musical score is written for three voices: Soprano (Si.), Alto (El. B.), and Bass (Bj.). The notation is in standard staff format with treble and bass clefs. The Soprano part begins with a whole note on a high pitch at measure 58, followed by a triplet of eighth notes at measure 60. The Alto part has a melodic line at measure 58, rests at measures 60 and 62, and a melodic line at measure 65. The Bass part features a continuous eighth-note pattern at measures 58 and 60, a melodic line at measure 62, rests at measure 65, and a melodic line at measure 69. The system starting at 69 ends with a double bar line.
