This musical score consists of three systems, each containing three staves. The first system (measures 87-89) shows the Violins (Vlns.) playing a continuous sixteenth-note pattern in a B-flat major key signature. The C Diapason (C Di.) and Ad Libitum (A.) parts are marked with a '9' and a horizontal line, indicating a sustained or held note. The second system (measures 90-92) continues the same pattern for the Violins and the '9' markings for the other parts. The third system (measures 93-95) shows the Violins continuing their pattern, while the C Diapason part begins a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, and the Ad Libitum part remains marked with a '9'.
