The musical score consists of three systems, each starting at a measure number (6, 8, 10, 12). Each system has three staves: Aut. Brk. Dr. (top), Glock. (middle), and T. (bottom). The Aut. Brk. Dr. staff uses a 7/8 time signature and features a repeating rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped in threes. The Glock. staff uses a treble clef and features a repeating rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped in threes. The T. staff uses a bass clef and features a repeating rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped in threes. The T. staff also includes a large, elongated oval shape, likely representing a sustained note or a specific timbre. The score is written in a 7/8 time signature.
